

Europcar adds All Nippon Airways to its stable of partners

(Paris / Tokyo, February 5th, 2008) - Europcar today announced that it has signed a partnership agreement with leading Japanese carrier All Nippon Airways (ANA). The deal is Europcar's first airline partnership in Japan and 3rd international partner based in the Asia-Pacific region.

The new partnership will benefit travellers as ANA and Europcar bundle service offerings and apply special car rental discounts. In addition, dedicated reservation services in Japanese have been developed to make reserving with Europcar especially easy for ANA travellers and ANA Mileage Club members.

Ranked among the top 10 airlines in the world, carrying 50 million passengers every year to 50 destinations in Japan and 27 cities throughout Asia, Europe and the United States, ANA is recognized for outstanding passenger service both on the ground and in the air. ANA has been in the airline business for over 50 years, and combined with ANA Group companies its activities extend across a host of complete travel and aviation-related services. It is the launch customer of the Boeing 787 and was voted "Airline of the Year for 2007" by Air Transport World magazine. ANA is a member of the Star Alliance.

"Europcar is proud to have signed up such a prestigious partner and we look forward to serving ANA travellers in Japan and around the world," said Guirec Grand Clement, Global Sales and Marketing Director at Europcar International.
